

CONSTITUTION

The name of the Society is the North Fraser Therapeutic Riding Association

The objects of the Society are:

- (a) To provide safe, professional therapeutic equine activities enriching the lives of physically, emotionally and developmentally challenged individuals through social, recreational and national competitive riding programs
- (b) To solicit, receive and accept funds by gift, bequest or otherwise and apply these funds to the functioning of the Society
- (c) To enlist the practical support of the general public by providing them with relevant information, films and lectures to encourage them to volunteer their services.
